

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Sir/Madam,

RE: DIKELETSONG CITIZENS' ADVICE BUREAU

Writer hereof is a member of the executive committee, as well as a member of the legal panel for Dikeletsong Citizens' Advice Bureau ("Dikeletsong").

Writer has so tendered to become involved, in person, but also via the firm of practising attorneys of which writer is a director, for the sole reason that Dikeletsong offers valuable assistance to underprivileged members of society who cannot afford (legal) assistance in the greater Tshwane Metropolitan Area.

Dikeletsong is, inter alia, dependant on donations and grants from members of the public, consisting of individuals, legal persona, churches and other organisations.

We would value and welcome any financial contributions and/or sponsorships for the purpose of maintaining and advancing the aim of Dikeletsong, namely to offer assistance of whatever nature, in the following fields:

1. Employment issues such as wages, unemployment, pensions and labour related issues;
2. Housing issues such as evictions, rent/lease of properties, transfers and related issues;
3. Family issues such as marriage/divorce, welfare, maintenance, children and missing persons;
4. Financial issues such as debt, insurance/tax, deaths/wills/estates and accident claims;
5. Senior citizens issues such as accommodation, pensions and employment;
6. Legal issues such as litigation, criminal/civil/labour related issues;
7. Consumer issues related to the Consumer Protection Act;
8. Education issues
9. The furnishing of general advice and assistance to the aforesaid section of the population.

In a recent address by Constitutional Court Judge, Justice Edwin Cameron, the work that Dikeletsong is doing amongst underprivileged people, has been complimented.

Writer trusts that you will favourably consider fitting Dikeletsong into your social responsibility-budget.

Yours faithfully
D.J. SCHOEMAN
